FILE NO. 30/3
SER'AL NO.

With the above, the Inspector General submits the records in an Infant marriage case that took place at Hunsekatte in the Davangere' taluk on the 10th day 1902. The age of the girl Bhadramma on the date of the marriage was 7 years, 9 months and 26 days. The Assistant Supdt of Police, recommends the prosecution of the parties concerned under Sec. 3 of the Infant Marriage prevention Regulation, but the Inspector General of Police states that as only 2 months and 4 days are wanting to complete 8 years which is the age prescribed for the marriage of girls, the prosecution of the parties in the case under reference may be given up

Submitted for orders

15/7/02 The case is a clear one, & the age of the girl is fully established by the below 9 years by the Register of Births & by other evidence. There seems to be no reason to withhold a prosecution in this case.

Letter No. 976 dated 11th July 1902

from the Inspector General of Police reporting that on the 10th May 02 an infant girl aged 7 years, 9 months & 26 days named Bhadramma, daughter of one Basappa

was married to one Virappa son of Jangam Rachappa

at Hunsekatte in the Davangere Taluk and recommending that as the girl was only 2 months & 4 days below the prescribed age, the prosecution of the parties in the case may be given up.

1. Basappa - father of the girl
2. Jangam Rachappa, s/o - of the bridegroom
3. Kallikeriyappa, the officiating priest.

ORDER THEREON No. 1379 DATED BANGALORE 23/7/1902

J.125 E. Records.

The case is a clear one, & the age of the girl is fully established to be below 8 years by the Register of Births and by the evidence of the Civil Surgeon. There is no reason to withhold the prosecution in this case. Mysore Regn.

Under the provisions of Section 8 of Regulation X of 1894, the Government are pleased to direct the prosecution, for offences under Section 3 of the Mysore Infant Marriages Prevention Regulation, of the marginally noted persons who caused the marriage of the infant girl named Bhadramma with a boy named Virappa, or knowingly aided and abetted the same, and of the said husband

To L. Anantarami Rao Esqr: B.A.,
THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
in the GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Sir,

I beg to forward herewith a memo of the 29th June 1902 from the Assistant Superintendent of Police of the Chitaldrug District bringing to notice the occurrence of an infant marriage at Hunsekatte in the Davangere Taluk on the 10th May 1902. — It will be seen therefrom that Basappa father of the bride gave his daughter Bhadramma aged 4 years 9 months and 26 days, in marriage to one Virappa aged about 13 years son of Jangam Rachappa and that Haribasayya performed the marriage ceremonies.

2. The Assistant Superintendent of Police recommends the prosecution of the parties concerned viz, Basappa father of the bride, Jangam Rachappa father of the bride-groom and Haribasayya the priest that performed the marriage ceremonies, under Sec: 3 of the Infant Marriage Prevention Regulation.—

3. As only 2 months and 4 days are wanting to complete 8 years which is the age prescribed for the marriage of girls in the above regulation, I beg to recommend that the prosecution of the parties in the case under reference may be given up.

4. I submit the records of the case for the orders of Government.—

I have the honor to be,
Your most obedient servant

Offg: Inspector General of Police
